::O R D E R ::

25th JULY 2006

Per G.S.Singhvi, C.J.

In these petitions, the petitioners have prayed for issue of a writ of mandamus to the respondents to include their names in the electoral rolls of their respective villages and allow them to cast votes in the forthcoming election to Gram Panchayats.

Learned counsel representing the Andhra Pradesh State Election Commission says that the applications made by the petitioners will be considered, dealt with and decided by the competent authorities within a period of 48 hours and the decision would be communicated to the concerned applicants. He further states that the names of those found eligible to be included in the voters' list will be added in the electoral rolls and they will be allowed to cast vote in the forthcoming election.

In our opinion, the statement made by the learned counsel for the State Election Commission adequately meets the ends of justice. Therefore, all the writ petitions are disposed of with the following directions:-

1) The concerned competent authorities shall, within 48 hours, deal with and dispose of the applications made by the petitioners for inclusion of their names in the electoral rolls of their respective villages. The decision of the concerned authorities shall be communicated to the applicants who shall present themselves before the concerned authorities between 12.00 noon of 27th July, 2006 and 12.00 noon of 28th July, 2006.

2) The names of the persons who are found entitled to be included in the electoral rolls shall be added in the electoral rolls by issuing necessary amendments and they shall be allowed to cast vote in the forthcoming elections of Gram Panchayats to be held on 29th July, 2006 and thereafter.

The aforementioned directions shall be carried out by all the concerned officers without fail.

25th July, 2006.

Note: The Court Officer is directed to give attested copies of this order to the learned counsel representing the State Election Commission, Government Pleader for Panchayat Raj and counsel representing the petitioners.
